IMPACT Group's Team of Certified Professional Résumé Writers Volunteer to Provide Résumé Writing Support to "Connections to Success"- A Nonprofit Organization Helping Prepare Individuals Entering the Workforce

SAINT LOUIS - March 16, 2009 – IMPACT Group, a WBE-global career management firm announced today that the company's team of résumé writers will be providing free résumé writing support to Connections to Success – an organization that prepares individuals entering the workforce with resources and training needed to find employment.

"In today's tough economic times, it is important that everyone is given an opportunity to get their foot in the door," said Lauren Herring, president of IMPACT Group. "With so many job seekers out there, a stand-out résumé is the first step to getting noticed. Our experts will provide individuals with résumé writing assistance and advice that will empower them during their job search."

"Our goal is to help individuals become self-sufficient, especially as it relates to their job search," said Kathy Lambert, Co-Founder and Director of Connections to Success. "In many cases, they do not know where to begin. IMPACT Group's expertise will support those who would not otherwise know how to write a résumé or showcase their talent during the interview process."
