Altair Global Announces IMPACT Group's Achievements at 2018 Supplier Awards Ceremony

PLANO, TEXAS (Oct. 17, 2018) – Held in Seattle during Worldwide ERC's® 2018 Global Workforce Symposium, Altair Global hosted its second annual, invitation-only awards ceremony to recognize their suppliers' outstanding achievements. Altair Global proudly announced IMPACT Group as the winner of the "All-Star Award for Mobility Support Services."

"Our company is only as successful as the suppliers we choose to partner with, which is why we're extremely proud to be working with IMPACT Group," says Chad Sterling, chief executive officer at Altair Global. "Their hard work and steadfast support allow us to continue to be a leading mobility provider in this industry. I want to thank IMPACT Group for such a mutually beneficial business relationship. We look forward to our continued work together."

The award was presented to IMPACT Group for achieving excellent results in the delivery of mobility support services by way of subject matter expertise, active participation in industry associations, stakeholder collaboration, knowledge sharing, effective communication, supply chain management, cost stewardship and a strong customer focus.

"We are extremely honored to be a recognized partner with Altair Global and will continue to provide outstanding service that aligns with their values," said Ed Marshall, Global Mobility Practice Leader, IMPACT Group.
