IMPACT Group Selected as a "Champion of Good Works" by the Commerce & Industry Association of New Jersey (CIANJ)

SAINT LOUIS - February 16, 2015: IMPACT Group, a WBE- global leader in career transitions was selected by a panel of CIANJ judges as one of the 30 Champions of Good Works for corporate philanthropy. The award will be presented to the firm at the 2nd Annual CIANJ Chairman's Reception saluting corporate philanthropy on March 11.

According to CIANJ, more than 80 businesses were considered for the awards. IMPACT Group was selected as an award winner because of the organizations impact left by work, the number of people involved and the value of the effort.

"We are honored to be recognized for what we do best - to enhance and improve people's lives and make the communities in which we operate more attractive places to live and work," said IMPACT Group CEO Lauren Herring. " Our organization contributes both time and financial support to our community and we appreciate CIANJ recognizing us for our contributions. "

IMPACT Group leadership and employees pay it forward yearly, volunteering at 150+ organizations and serving on numerous boards around the world. IMPACT Group supports employees around the country and the world who voluntarily contribute their dollars, time and talents to help people in need and to participate in community improvement activities.
